

From 1960-80
Frank J. Ryan

Appendix A

NEUROSPORA POLICY COMMITTEE: Guidelines for Functions and Makeup

I. Duties:

A. Conferences: To decide region, solicit invitations, and decide place for biennial Information Conferences

To appoint a working committee for planning each Conference

To explore sources of financial support to enable students and foreign workers to attend Conferences

B. Stock Center: To advise and support FGSC as may be required, in consultation with the Director

To make long-term plans for perpetuation of the collection and provide for succession to the Directorship on retirement or resignation of the Director

C. Newsletter: To advise and support the Neurospora Newsletter as required in consultation with the Editor

To appoint a rotating editorial board, or provide for their appointment, and specify their duties

To provide for succession to the editorship on retirement or resignation of the Editor.

D. Other: To recommend policies and initiate other actions deemed beneficial for research and communication among Neurospora workers.

II. Membership: Five appointed members, plus: Director, FGSC and Editor, Newsletter (ex officio)

III. Term of service, and mode of appointment: Normally staggered 5-year terms with one replacement per year
Initially 1 to 5-year terms

Replacements appointed by Committee, subject to approval of Information Conference.

IV. Meetings: Regularly at Information Conferences, at which time Chairman and replacement members for two succeeding years to be chosen.

Interim business by correspondence or at meetings of the Genetics Society of America.